After opening the season with 2 losses against N.B.L. Champs, Hogan (8-1) and Runner Runner-up Placer (7-2), the Bulldogs tied a tough Rio Americano (6-2-2) team from the capital Valley League. The exciting Bulldogs then trounced Marshall (6-3) to cap their practice schedule.

They opened the 1971 Delta League with a devastating win over Woodland (7-2), lost to Armijo (4-5), beat Davis (2-6-1), and Fairfield (4-4-1).

The Bulldogs capped the season with 7-6 lose to Cordova for the Delta League Championship. Even though the Lancers did not cross the Bulldogs' 37 yard line and only gained 60 yards total, a 100 pass interception by Prep All-American Jerry Manual proved to be the deciding point.

Cordova went on to defeat Grant High of the North Metro League in the section playoff, 33-20.
